

GISday @ WashU

Wednesday, November 15th, 2017

GIS in the Community

9:00 - 10:00am - Coffee and Light Breakfast

10:00 - 11:30am - Keynote Speakers

Location - Women's Building Formal Lounge

Keynote Presentations:

Using GIS to Inform Program Recruitment and Retention

Amy Sorg, Senior Data Analyst
Brown School Evaluation Center
Washington University in St. Louis

The Wetlands Story Map: Engaging the Community in Clean Water Act Compliance

Ken Miller, Environmental Scientist
Interdisciplinary Environmental Clinic
Washington University in St. Louis

Prioritizing Vacancy Demolitions and Green Space Conversions with a Combination of GIS Modeling and Participatory Mapping

Laura Ginn, Research Scientist
Green City Coalition

1:00 - 3:00pm - Exploring GIS with fourth grade classes at MRH Elementary School (prior registration required)

For more information visit:
gis.wustl.edu/gisday2017

